

International Joseph A. Schumpeter Society 2024 Schumpeter Prize Competition

The International Joseph Alois Schumpeter Society, ISS, is pleased to announce the 2024 Schumpeter Prize Competition.

The prize is awarded every two years in recognition of a recent and outstanding scholarly contribution related to Schumpeter's work.

TRANSFORMATION : CREATIVE ACCUMULATION AND CREATIVE DESTRUCTION IN THE ECONOMY

has been designated by the managing board of the society as the topic for the 2024 conference.

Entries must be postmarked or received electronically no later than February 1st, 2024. Works submitted must be either unpublished or published (defined as the first published online version in journal) subsequent to June 1, 2022. Submissions may be of article or book length. There is no page or format specification. Submissions will be judged by a committee headed by the President-Elect of the Society.

The winner will be announced and the award made at the 20th International Schumpeter Society Conference. ISS2024 is organized by the society and the U-GOT KIES Centre on knowledge-intensive innovation ecosystems in Gothenburg, Sweden. Please see more at: <https://www.gu.se/en/u-gotkies/iss2024>

Submissions should preferably be sent electronically to the administrative office of the ISS.

The contact data of the administrative office of the ISS are :

Mrs Olga Gaessner
Friedrich-Schiller-University Jena
Carl-Zeiss-Str. 3, 07743
Jena / Germany
Phone: +49 3641 943200
Fax: +49 3641 943202
E-mail: olga.gaessner@uni-jena.de